

MISS MARY E. CHAPMAN TO WED H. S. NEWMAN

Ceremony Will Take Place at 7:30
O'clock on Evening of June 24.

MRS. BUCKNER IN PETERSBURG
Widow of Distinguished Confederate
General to Attend Wedding of Miss Donald F. Claiborne to Stephen West Holden.

Mrs. Simon Bolivar Buckner, widow of General Buckner, C. S. A., of Kentucky, who has been visiting relatives in Richmond, will go to Petersburg this week for a short stay. Mrs. Buckner will attend the wedding of her relative, Miss Donald Fraser Claiborne, daughter of the late Dr. John Claiborne and Mrs. Claiborne, to Stephen West Holden, son of Mrs. Randall Holden, of Petersburg, which is to be celebrated in historic old Tabb Street Presbyterian Church on Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock. A fashionable gathering of relatives and friends will attend the wedding.

Host at Stag Party.
One of the social features of last week was the stag party given by H. Buckner at his residence, 1828 Grove Avenue, in honor of a number of prominent out of town guests. Decorations were in the colors of the Confederacy, and covers were laid for fifteen. Those present included General Lyne, General West, Captain Tate and a number of other prominent men from a distance.

Invitations Out.
Colonel and Mrs. W. H. Chapman, of 1917 Stuart Avenue, have issued invitations for the wedding reception of their daughter, Mary Estelle, to Herbert Stanley Newman, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Newman, of Hilton, Orange County, for the evening of June 24, at 7:30 o'clock. The ceremony, which will be held only by the immediate families and a number of close friends, will take place at 7 o'clock.

In New York.
Mr. and Mrs. Marshall L. King, of Washington, attended the Confederate Reunion here last week, and left later for a visit to New York. Mr. and Mrs. King will open their country home, "Ben Venue," in Virginia, the first week in July, and they expect to spend the summer months on their estate.

Entertain House Party.
An enjoyable house party has been in progress for the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Parr, near Pedlar Mills, Amherst County. Tennis, croquet and dancing amused the guests. Those present were Misses Josephine Miller and Mattie Davis, of New York; Misses Frances Condon, of Goshen Pass, Jean Roberts, of South Boston; Bessie Parr, of Allwood; Clyde, Ruby and Essie Parr, of Pedlar Mills, and Mrs. Laura Hays, of Lexington. Messrs. Henry Barker, of Washington, Henry Lewis and Russell Jennings, of Norfolk; Guy and Clayton Davis, of Peach, James Parr, of Allwood; Tom Woods, Sam Turner, Earl and Guy Pedlar, of Pedlar Mills.

Davidson—Turner.
An unusually pretty marriage took place at the home of E. B. Davidson at New Canton on June 2 at 2 o'clock. The bride, Miss Mary Davidson, daughter of Walter Davidson, also of Buckingham County, Rev. R. W. Bagwell performed the ceremony. The rooms were decorated with roses and ferns and improvised bower, under which the bride couple stood, was arranged with the same flowers. The bride was given in a blue traveling suit, with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of maiden hair ferns and carnations. Her attendants wore white organdy with show bouquets of roses. Miss Grace Farmer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Lucile Davidson, Annie Floyd Davidson, and Virginia Davidson. Seldon Williams was the groom's best man and Messrs. Baker Clark, Edward Clark and Hermon Snoddy were the groomsmen. Little Helen Smith carried the ring on a silver tray. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Davidson left for a Northern tour and will be at home after June 9 in Buckingham County.

Out-Door Play.
An event of much local interest will be the presentation to-night of "As You Like It," by the Richmond College Dramatic Club, in the large natural theater to the east of the auditorium. The costumes were secured from a large theatrical agency of New York and in the full-dress rehearsal Saturday night they made a wonderful impression. There will be a number of comedies.

Following is the cast: Duke, Mr. Kennedy; Frederick, his brother, Mr. Breitstein; Amiens, Mr. Privott; Jacques, Mr. Omohundro; Le Beau, Mr. Bagley; Oliver, Mr. Miller; Orlando, Mr. Carter; Adam, Mr. Leslie; Touchstone, Mr. Dunford; Corin, Mr. Metcalf; Silvius, Mr. Meade; William, Professor Olmstead; Charles, Mr. Fox; Rosalind, Miss Porter; Celia, Miss Blair; Phebe, Miss Clay; Audrey, Miss Wallerstein; Jockey, Mr. Breitstein; Mr. Latane, lady; Miss Shine, paces, Miss Chappell; Miss Ransome, foresters, Mr. Hutchinson; Mr. Ryland, attendant, Mr. Crippen.

Repeat May Queen.
Mrs. M. W. Peyer is planning to repeat the May Queen play at the Soldiers' Home on Wednesday at 5 o'clock for the benefit of the Retreat for the Sick and the Soldiers' Home. The May Queen will be Miss Elsie Lewis, and other taking part are: Misses Sarah Crouch, Miriam Vincent, Veronica Sauer and Ouis Cobb. Sixty-five children will take part.

Farewell Reception.
A farewell reception was given Miss Inez Kelley by her friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tyson, 1118 North Twenty-second Street, on Friday evening in honor of Miss Kelley's departure for her future home in Roanoke. Among those present were Misses Cristie Smith, Ruby Butler, May Felvey, Blanche Avery, Myrtle Tyson, Grace Miller, Essie Germaine, Bessie and Marie Tyson, Edith Tyson, Messrs. Wyatt Smith, Fred Johnson, MacGarry, Joe Dorsett, Ansell Allen, Raymond White, William Kersey, William Verlander, Thomas Avery, Mr. and Mrs. Tyson.

Knave—Murphy.
A pretty marriage was solemnized at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart on the morning of Wednesday, June 2, with a nuptial mass, when Miss Anne Murphy became the bride of Joseph Gebhart Ross, Jr. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Kaupf, assisted by Father McKee and Father Rankin. The bride wore a traveling suit of Belgium blue, with hat and gloves to match, and carried American Beauty roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Madeline Murphy, who wore a gown of pink, and carried pink roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Lawrence Ross, as best man, Frank Boehling, John G. Ross, James J. Foster and Joseph J. Murphy acted as ushers.

Pupils Recital.
Miss Zella Minor's pupils give their class recital in the Steiff Company auditorium, 117 West Broad Street, on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. No invitations have been issued, and all friends of Miss Minor and her pupils are cordially invited to attend.

Marriage Announced.
Announcement has just been made of the marriage of Miss Sara Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Car-

VIRGINIAN PROMOTED

Robert W. Perkins, Jr., Made Assistant to Attorney-General of Porto Rico.

Robert W. Perkins, Jr., of Newport News, who was appointed last September to a position in the office of Attorney-General Kirm, of Porto Rico, has been promoted to the office of first assistant to the Attorney-General.

Information of the good fortune of his son reached Robert W. Perkins, of the staff of Commissioner of Internal Revenue Monrovia here, yesterday. Mr. Perkins is especially gratified because of the fact that Robert W. Jr., who is but twenty-four years old, had just graduated from the Harvard Law School when he received his Porto Rican appointment, and was unknown to Attorney-General Kirm when he was recommended by the dean of the law school for the position, and was accepted on that recommendation.

COMMENCEMENT UNDER WAY AT WILLIAM AND MARY
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WILLIAMSBURG, Va., June 7.—Dr. G. C. Kelly, of Norfolk, preached the baccalaureate sermon in the chapel of William and Mary College yesterday morning before a large congregation.

practically all of the churches of the city giving way for the opening of the commencement exercises.

William and Mary was the scene to-night of the intersociety contest in debate, the subject being "Resolved, That under present conditions the administration of the ship purchase bill is desirable." The Phoenix was represented by W. R. Shands and E. D. Ribble, and the Phiomathean by Clarence Jennings and W. D. Harris. Paul M. Deerin, president, presided over the exercises and introduced the speakers, who acquitted themselves with distinction.

William and Mary is in gala attire for the commencement exercises, which will continue until Thursday night. Already many visitors are in town, and by Wednesday a number of distinguished alumni will be here. College pennants and colors, flags and bunting make the scene about the college buildings and grounds most attractive.
